1820-1822 E, MAIN STREET, Old'Phone 316, New 'Phones, 506 E. MARSHALL STREET, Old 'Phone 34, 509, Leigh streets, are so generously contributing to the refreshment of the bodily appetities of these children, some of whom are on the very threshold of young womanhood, and many of them really hungry for mental food, and though faithfully instructed in school, have no reading outside, I hope it will not be 'out of order' if the request be made that some of the 'Christmas gifts' may come in the shape of good, pure, and instructive little books. The small stock recently brought in was exhausted in about two days, and these ravenous young souls are crying for 'more!"

What could be more elevating, improving, and helpful in all respects than a supply of good and suitable literature?

Very respectfully,

"THE NEW MATRON."
